As per my previous email, I am attaching a very rough draft of the chapter I am writing which is missing edits, additions, etc from my coauthor. But before, I submit it to him I was hoping just to get, at a minimum, the FBI material cleared for his viewing.

Once this is approved, will I have to submit another version of the draft? The publishing process is broken into three phases: the outline, the initial draft, and then a completed version. The outline was already submitted and the early draft chapter is attached. I can email you a final version before we submit it to the publisher if required. Or will this suffice? I am just not sure of the processes. Again, your assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Thank you.

Re: One chapter titled, "The Threat of Harm by Transnational Organized Criminals: A U.S. Perspective"

Dear Mr. Marvelli,

This letter is in response to the March 16, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of one chapter titled, "The Threat of Harm by Transnational Organized Criminals: A U.S. Perspective."

The chapter was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your making the manuscript, as presented, for publication.

You may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please contact

at 540-868-1697.

Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Guest on AMERICAN HEROES RADIO

Dear Mr. Joyner,

This letter is in response to the April 13, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your request to be a guest on AMERICAN HEROES RADIO.

The interview is formally approved. However, please be advised that any discussion of matters relating to your employment with the FBI may involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that the FBI will not approve the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential, or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or governmental entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;
- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Re: "The FBI Oral History Project: Interviews of Former FBI Special Agent Eugene N. Thomeczek"

Dear Mr. Hollstein,

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) received your letters requesting prepublication review of interview of former SA Eugene N. Thomeczek on April 13, 2010.

The FBI's prepublication review policy provides for a review period of thirty business days not counting the day of receipt. This review period can be extended depending upon the complexity of the materials being reviewed, but in most cases the reviews are completed within the thirty business day period. A review of your submissions is in progress and we will advise of the results upon completion.

Should you have any questions, please contact at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Dissertation titled, "Reflective thinking and emotional intelligence as predictive performance factors in problem-based learning situations"

Dear Ms. Mitchell,

This letter is in response to the April 30, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your dissertation titled, "Reflective thinking and emotional intelligence as predictive performance factors in problem-based learning situations."

The manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your making the manuscript, as presented, for publication.

You may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please contact ______at 540-8 Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: "The FBI Oral History Project: Interviews of Former FBI Special Agents James M. Sturgis, Jr., Barry D. Colvert and Robin L. Montgomery"

Dear Mr. Hollstein,

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) received your letters requesting prepublication review of interviews of former SA's James M. Sturgis, Jr., Barry D. Colvert and Robin L. Montgomery on March 8, 2010.

The FBI's prepublication review policy provides for a review period of thirty business days not counting the day of receipt. This review period can be extended depending upon the complexity of the materials being reviewed, but in most cases the reviews are completed within the thirty business day period. A review of your submissions is in progress and we will advise of the results upon completion.

Should you have any questions, please contact at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Article titled, "Target Violence"

Dear Mr. McGovern,

This letter is in response to the May 5, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24), of your article titled, "Target Violence."

The manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your making the manuscript, as presented, for publication.

Should you have any questions, please contact

at 540-868-1697.

Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Forward for book by Author Timea Nagy

Dear Mr. Lanza,

This letter is in response to the May 13, 2010, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I,1-24 and 26.1 through 26.4), of your forward for a book by author Timea Nagy.

The article was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure, therefore there is no objection to your providing the manuscript, as presented, for publication.

You may include your former title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Sex Slave Survivor Tells Her Story Woman Speaks To YWCA Audience

KANSAS CITY, Kan. - Timea Nagy, a new book author, spoke to a group at the YWCA on Tuesday about how she became a victim of human trafficking.

Nagy said she was a naive girl when she left Budapest, Hungary, at 19. It all started with an advertisement for baby-sitters in Canada, but Nagy ended up working as a stripper, a dancer and working inside a massage parlor.

She said her aggressors threatened to kill her and her family if she ever told anyone.

"I don't know how to explain," she said. "I was so tired and my mind was tired. I think you either freak out or you stay calm. And my way to survive was to stay calm.

She couldn't speak English to tell anyone she was trapped. It's a problem she said that many young women who are still victims of human sex trafficking face. They are told they will be deported, or killed

"I tried to commit suicide," she said. "I tried to pretend that I was committing suicide to see if they would take me to the hospital. But they did not. They said I didn't cut deep enough."

Retired FBI agent Jeff Lanza, who worked on many human trafficking cases including a similar case in Overland Park, said the public needs to open its eyes to the problem.

Nagy's book, "Walk With Me, Memoirs of a Sex Slave Survivor," should be in stores soon
